Numb. 5900

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 1. to Saturday November 5. 1720.

Toulon, October 23.

M. Ceſſart is returned hither from his unſucceſsful Expedition againſt the Moors. He had with him one 50 Gun Ship, one of 10 Guns, and two Barks, having on board 500 Land Soldiers. He is obliged to perform 20 Days Quarantain.

Copenhagen, Oct 22. The King of Denmark and the Prince Royal returned hither from Holſtein on Saturday laſt. The Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace between this Court and Sweden were exchanged To-Day; and Orders are diſpatched for the Evacuation of Stralſund, Pomerania, and Rugen, and of the Forts of Malſtrand on the 12th of November, N. S. The Lord Carteret will ſet out in a few Days for Hanover.

Paris, Nov. 9. On the 6th Inſtant in the Morning, after the King's Levy, the Marſhal de Villeroy went to Villeroy, his Country Seat, whence he returned laſt Night to the Tuilleries. The Cardinal de Rohan being arrived here on Thurſday laſt, from his Country Seat of Saverne, went immediately to the Palais Royal, where he had a long Conference with the Duke Regent. The Cardinal de Noailles is likewiſe come back from Mont-Carmel, where he has been for ſome time to perform his Devotions. It does not yet appear that this Prelate has conſented to the Publication of his Mandate about the Pope's Conſtitution. A Courier arrived here ſome Days ago from Rome, with the Pope's Bulls for the Duke of Chartres to hold both the great Maſterſhips of St. Lazarus and of Mont-Carmel; and that Prince will accordingly take the uſual Oaths to the King on Sunday next. Made Fourbin de Janſon, Archbiſhop of Arles, died here on the 6th Inſtant in a very advanced Age. It is adviſed from Marſeilles by Letters of the 24th paſt, that the Plague had almoſt ceaſed there; and that the Inhabitants, who had retired to the Baſtides, were preparing to return to that City.

Paris, Nov. 11. Three French Ships, fitted out and laden at the Expence of private Perſons of St. Malo, went thence lately to the River of Plata; where their Men landing fell to hunting the wild Bulls of the Country, and carrying on a clandeſtine Trade with the Colony of St. Sacrament: But the Governour of thoſe Parts drawing together ſome Troops, drove them away with the Loſs of about 150 Men. The Ships are come back to St. Malo, and have brought with them a good Number of Hides. The lateſt Advices from Provence, tell us the Violence of the Plague is abated, and that the Contagion does not ſpread much: So that the cold Weather coming on, it is hoped it will not be communicated on this Side the Rivers Rhone and Iſere, which are well guarded to prevent any one's paſſing over from the infected Countries.

This is to give Notice to all Maſters and Commanders of Ships and Veſſels, paſſing by Dover Harbour, that on the 10th of October 1720, there will be erected on the South Pier Head of the ſaid Harbour, a Lanthorn Light by Night, and a Flag hoiſted by Day, ſo ſoon as there ſhall be ten Foot Water on the Flood between the Pier Heads, and to continue until the Water is decreaſed on the Ebb to ten Foot, and then the ſaid Light will be put out, or the ſaid Flag ſtruck, and this will be done all the Year round; the ſame Harbour being now very commodious for the Reception of trading Ships and Veſſels, there being 13 Foot Water on Neap Tides, and upwards of 18 Foot on common Spring Tides.

The Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford-Strond, do give Notice to all Maſters and Pilots of Ships, that (the Woods on the Naze-Land, which formerly ſerved for a Sea-Mark, being decayed,) they have, for the Benefit of Navigation, cauſed to be built on the ſaid Naze-Land a Brick tower 80 Foot high, for a Guide to Ships coming out of the Sea.

Advertiſements.
